GENERAL INFORMATION

Providing necessary plant nutrients is essential to crop growth and development and is part of a regular fertilization program. Ensuring those plant nutrients are delivered to the proper location and kept in soil solution where roots are available to take them up is equally important.

THRIVEDO™ improves the delivery of irrigation water and essential plant nutrients to the crop and provides the opportunity for vigorous plant growth, fruit and flower development.

PRODUCT STATEMENT

THRIVEDO™ is protein-surfactant blend that acts as an auxiliary soil and plant substance used to influence plant growth and quality by reducing surface and interfacial tension of solutions commonly found in nutrient and irrigation applications. It is formulated for use in horticultural specialty crops, specifically those produced in greenhouses, vertical farms, and nurseries where irrigation systems can be controlled.

THRIVEDO™ promotes beneficial effects on plant growth and vigor by enhancing moisture penetration and improving soil-wetting in hydrophobic soil conditions.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE

SHAKE CONTAINER WELL. Add THRIVEDO™ to a partially filled application tank. All other application materials should be added prior to THRIVEDO™.

Dilute 0.10 – 0.50 fl. oz per gallon of water based on the chart below

Crop	Rate	Application Timing
Fruiting Vegetables (tomatoes, peppers, peas, etc.)	0.15-0.35 ounces/gallon	Begin application immediately after germination. Apply as needed.
Leafy Greens (spinach, lettuce, kale, mustard greens, collard greens, cabbage and broccoli)	0.10-0.25 ounces/gallon	Begin application immediately after germination. Apply as needed.
Edible Grasses (wheat grass, barley grass, alfalfa grass, oat grass)	0.10-0.35 fl. oz/gallon	Begin application immediately after germination. Apply as needed.
Flowering Ornamentals	0.15-0.35 fl. oz/gallon	Use weekly during irrigation as needed.
Woody Ornamentals	0.25-0.50 fl. oz/gallon	Use weekly during irrigation as needed.

COMPATIBILITY: This product is compatible with most fertilizers and pesticides, provided they are used in accordance with the registered label directions.

When there is a question of compatibility prior to application, use the “jar compatibility test” in the following manner: Add 32 oz of the carrier you plan to use (water or liquid fertilizer). If water is your carrier, be sure to use the same water source that will go into the application tank. Add the materials and rates you plan to use to the carrier in the following order: water soluble pouches, wettable powder, dry flowables, capsule suspensions, emulsifiable concentrates, soluble liquids (THRIVEDO™), soluble powders, and surfactants. Seal the jar with the lid and shake vigorously after each addition. You will almost never use all these types of products at one time, so choose the ones you will use and add them to the jar in the order listed. Shake well and allow to stand for at least five minutes. Observe to determine if any flocculation, precipitation, or unusual settling out occurs. If flocculation, precipitation, or other incompatible properties, etc. occur, do not tank-mix THRIVEDO™ with that product. Select another product with suitable compatibility properties.

INCOMPATIBILITY Test compatibility of product with rubber or plastic components before full scale use.

STORAGE CONDITIONS Keep container tightly closed until ready for use. Store in cool, well ventilated place that is locked. Dispose of contents/container in accordance with local/regional/national/international regulations. Do not reuse empty container.

THRIVEDO™ has a shelf life of two years.
